Mr. Roger Hatcher,

This email correspondence pertains to the current legal matter [Case No: 2022DC000915], Neal vs. Neal. Given your role associated with this case and in adherence to the statutes of Illinois law, we find it necessary to request certain crucial documents from you.

In the attachment to this email, you will find a legal document termed as a 'Subpoena Duces Tecum.' This document obligates you to produce specific documents and records that bear relevance to the ongoing case.

Please be duly informed that non-compliance with this subpoena, as per Rule 237 of the Illinois Rules of Civil Procedure along with related prevailing statutes, may result in being held in contempt of court and subsequent legal repercussions.

Moreover, the aforementioned statutes impose an inherent obligation on your person to preserve all potential evidence i.e., documents and records pertaining to this case. Willful destruction, alteration, or concealment of such evidence may catalyze criminal charges or legal sanctions.

Please note, this electronic communication serves as the initial notice of your obligation. In furtherance of ensuring you receive this subpoena, a hard copy of the same will be dispatched to your physical address via registered U.S. Mail as a cautionary measure, mirroring the seriousness of this legal process.

To ensure you fully comprehend the extent of your obligations and potential liabilities under the law, you may deem it beneficial to confer with your legal counsel.

It is of utmost importance that you grasp the seriousness of this request and reciprocate respect to its gravity with prompt and diligent attention.

Should you harbor any queries, ambiguities, or concerns related to such matters, kindly feel free to respond to this email or contact me.

Best Regards,

Mario Neal
