Wendy,

I am writing to address serious concerns regarding your representation of my children in the divorce case. You have been dishonest and complicit in covering up instances of child abuse and domestic violence perpetrated by my husband, Thomas Neal.

Your actions to protect my children from harm and shield their abuser from accountability are inexcusable. I cannot stand idly by while you continue to compromise the safety and well-being of my children. It is clear to me that your legal and ethical decisions have been tainted by deception and a complete disregard for the welfare of the children you are supposed to advocate for. To this day, I wonder what has been motivating you to break the law for Tom and his family!

I am aware of the crimes you have committed and the cover-ups you have orchestrated. I demand that you disclose the truth and your intentions to resign from your role as the Guardian representing my children by tomorrow morning. Your failure to uphold your duty and act in the best interests of the children will not go unpunished.

If you do not tender your resignation by 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, I will be left with no choice but to take the necessary steps to ensure the safety and protection of my children. Your continued presence in this case poses a threat to their well-being, and I will not hesitate to remove you from your position if you refuse to do so voluntarily.

I urge you to consider the gravity of the situation and the impact of your actions on the lives of innocent children who deserve to be safeguarded from harm. It is time for accountability and justice to prevail, and I will not rest until my children are out of harm's way.

To anyone considering aiding in the cover-up of Wendy's crimes against children, listen closely. Your actions will not go unnoticed or unpunished. Choosing to protect Wendy over the innocent lives of children is a grave mistake that will haunt you. Your misguided loyalty will not shield you from the consequences of your betrayal. I urge you to reconsider, to prioritize the well-being of these vulnerable children over a criminal. The time for action is now, before it's too late. Stand on the right side of justice and protect those who need it most.

Sincerely,
Mario Neal
